

We offer courses specifically for funders, commissioners and grants officers.

Charities Evaluation Services (CES) is the UK's leading provider of training and consultancy on evaluation and quality systems in the third sector.

We design courses just for you!

PQASSO for funders and commissioners

This new course is for anyone who commissions or funds voluntary organisations and is interested in learning more about quality.

26 May 2010

Assessing the outcomes of funded projects

This course is suitable for anyone involved in developing or reviewing a system for monitoring and evaluating grant-giving.

27 May 2010

Are you interested in Social Return on Investment (SROI)?

CES is delivering a free SROI Workshop on 6 May 2010.

'I thought that I knew everything about monitoring and evaluation and my colleagues thought that the course would be too basic for me - I don't and it wasn't.'

Feedback from course participant

Get in touch for more details about all of these courses.

To find out more about how CES training can help you, visit www.ces-vol.org.uk or call a member of the training team on 0207 713 5722.

