

PQASSO Quality Mark - getting ready for assessment

Duration:
Two days

PQASSO is the leading quality system in use in the voluntary sector. It is a self-assessment tool that offers organisations the option to apply for the externally accredited PQASSO Quality Mark. The PQASSO Quality Mark is a prestigious award that demonstrates that an organisation has been externally assessed and has achieved the PQASSO standards.

What you will learn

You will:

- learn how to decide if an organisation is ready to apply for the PQASSO Quality Mark
- review your understanding of the 7-step PQASSO Quality Mark peer review process
- understand the mock peer review approach and how to implement it in an organisation
- consider ways of managing the challenges that could arise for an organisation, before and during a real peer review
- learn how to provide practical support in relation to applying for the PQASSO Quality Mark.

PQASSO 3rd edition Level 2 and 3 awards receive an additional endorsement and logo from the Charity Commission.

Who for

This course is suitable for anyone:

- that has already attended a CES-designed PQASSO training course and who is a quality champion and is leading PQASSO implementation within an organisation
- that is a current PQASSO Mentor.

Benefits

By attending this course you will:

- learn how to identify if an organisation is ready to apply for the PQASSO Quality Mark
- develop the essential skills necessary to prepare for a PQASSO Quality Mark peer review
- learn how to identify where improvements are needed before the real review happens
- increase your understanding of the peer review process.
