

Lord Amirali Bhatia – the first CES Chair

Senior Consultant Sally Cupitt

Trainer/Evaluator Shahanara Begum

Senior Consultant Dr Jean Ellis

Quality Conference 2009

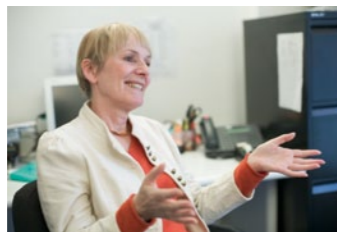

Current Chair Ros Oakley

| | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
|--|---|--|---|---|--|---|---|---|--|--|---|---|--|--|--|---|--|--|---|--|--|---|--|---|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|---|
| 1988 ‘Evaluation in the Voluntary Sector’ (by Mog Ball), published by The Forbes Trust | 1989 ‘Evaluation in the Voluntary Sector: The Next Steps’ (by C Ball and B Knight), published by the Centre for Research and Innovation in Social Policy and Practice – called for a national organisation to promote and support evaluation practice | 1990 CES is set up with a national office in London, with home office funding and a number of charitable trusts. | 1990 Libby Cooper is CES’ first Director. CES’ first Chair is Lord Amirali Bhatia, Chairman of the Forbes Trust | 1992 CES first publication series ‘Evaluating Ourselves’ launched | 1993 CES holds the first voluntary sector quality conference | 1995 CES starts to work with BBC Children in Need (CIN) with some pilot courses on self-evaluation. | 1995 First quality partnership with the British Quality Foundation – three-year programme: ‘Quality in Charities’ | 1995 CES moves to Coldbath Square | 1996 CES’ planning triangle emerges as a key training tool | 1997 Publication of PQASSO first edition | 1997 CES partners with NCVO in the Quality Standards Task Group | 2000 PQASSO mentor programme launched | 2000 2nd Edition of PQASSO is launched | 2001 Colin Nee is appointed as new Chief Executive | 2002-3 New range of evaluation publications – ‘First Steps in Monitoring and Evaluation’; ‘Practical Monitoring and Evaluation’; ‘Your Project and its Outcomes’ | 2005 CES becomes the accountable body on the ChangeUp National Performance Hub, with NCVO as the joint lead | 2006 CES is Highly Commended in the Charity Awards for the National Outcomes Programme | 2007 CES become strategic partners of the Office of the Third Sector | 2007 CES and partners (ACEVO, New Economics Foundation, New Philanthropy Capital and Voice4Change England) win the bid to lead the Capacitybuilders-funded National Performance Programme | 2007-8 Improving Reach programme in partnership with the Refugee Council including two publications for refugee community organisations and infrastructure organisations | 2008 CES wins The Charity Awards 2008 award for Effectiveness, for its work on PQASSO, and is Highly Commended in the Research, Advice and Support category. | 2008 3rd Edition of PQASSO launched | 2008 PQASSO Quality Mark is launched | 2009 Jean Ellis’ research paper to the VSSN/NCVO conference, ‘Monitoring and Evaluation in the Third Sector: Meeting Accountability and Learning Needs’, wins the Campbell Anderson prize | 2009 Jack Straw MP presents first ever PQASSO Quality Mark award to Child Action Northwest | 2009 Charity Commission announces its endorsement of the PQASSO Quality Mark | 2009 PQASSO is being adopted, translated and adapted internationally | 2009 Elizabeth Balgobin joins CES as Interim Chief Executive | 2010 Number of PQASSO copies sold reaches 13,000 | 2010 Number of mentors trained under the licensed PQASSO mentor programme since 2004 reaches 270 | 2010 Andy Gregg joins CES as Chief Executive | 2010 CES celebrates being 20! |
|--|---|--|---|---|--|---|---|---|--|--|---|---|--|--|--|---|--|--|---|--|--|---|--|---|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|---|

First CEO Libby Cooper

Former Senior Consultant Dr Rowan Astbury

Performance Consultant Shafiq Meghani

Colin Nee, CEO 2001-2009

PQASSO wins effectiveness award, 2008

Monitoring and IT Conference 2009

Jack Straw presents first PQASSO Quality Mark award

Andy Gregg, CEO